Re: Sahni, et al. v. Prudential Securities Incorporated, et al.
Docket No.: 2002-010156

Dear Mr. Kreuter:

I am working with Mr. Robert H. Weiss as co-counsel on behalf of claimants Charanjit Sahni and others in this matter. We recently received a list of three arbitrators that the Exchange had appointed in this matter. I understand, however, from Mr. Weiss' office that his office had requested the "Enhanced Procedure."

Please provide us with an Enhanced List at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas R. Ajamie

Re: Sahni, et al. v. Prudential Securities Incorporated, et al.
Docket No. 2002-010156

Dear Mr. Kreuter:

We are in receipt of a letter late Friday from Thomas Ajamie who advises that he is entering the case as co-counsel for the Claimants. We also note his request for an "Enhanced List", although we have no record of ever seeing a prior request in that regard by Mr. Weiss on behalf of the Claimant.

As you know, a Panel has already been appointed. We do not believe it appropriate to request an "Enhanced List" at this time, once an initial panel has in fact been appointed and its identity determined.

We are prepared to proceed with the current Panel.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Matthew Farley

Re: Sahni, et al. v. Prudential Securities Incorporated, et al.
Docket No.: 2002-010156

Dear Mr. McDonough:

Confirming my telephone conversation with you last week, I am scheduled for another NYSE arbitration the same week as this case. Thus, I will move for a continuance of the date in this case. Before doing so, I would like to try to work together to find a mutually convenient week.

We should let the Exchange know as soon as possible if we can agree on a week. If not, I want to file the motion now in order to give the Exchange advance notice. Claimants struck one of the recommended arbitrators and we should let the Exchange know that we need to schedule for another week before the new arbitrator is selected. Please call me as soon as you have had the chance to discuss this with your client.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas R. Ajamie

Re: Sahni, et al. v. Prudential Securities Incorporated, et al.
Docket No.: 2002-010156

Dear Mr. Kreuter:

We represent the respondents in this matter, in which Domitilia dos Santos was recently designated as a replacement non-public arbitrator following the claimants' peremptory challenge to Harry Aronsohn.

We are writing to inform you and the claimants that our firm does represent Salomon Smith Barney in a number of litigation matters. We are not their regular outside litigation counsel and have no knowledge of Ms. dos Santos personally. None of our engagements, past or current, involve her.

We do not believe this would pose an impediment to her service as an arbitrator in this matter, but are nevertheless making this disclosure to you and the claimants for whatever response may be deemed appropriate.

Very truly yours,

Brian F. McDonough

Docket No.: 2002-010156

Dear Brian:

My experts and I will need to review the original copies of the documents involving our clients. We are prepared to travel to your offices or to Prudential's offices to view these original documents. The original documents that we need to review with our experts include all the original account opening documents, option agreements, margin agreements, customer agreements, inter-office memos (such as Prudential 306), account review information forms, account review notes, FA active account worksheets, new account agreements, original compliance documents, trading authorizations, original order tickets, including attachments, and documents showing corrections or changes to orders or purchases for the claimants' accounts. We need to personally inspect all these documents, especially every document which includes any handwritten notes or markings made in pen or pencil.

We are available to go to New York as early as next week, depending on your schedule. Please let me know when and where we can arrive.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas R. Ajamie
